About college:

Our college, Savitribai Phule College, Vasmatnagar, located in rural area of Hingoli district. Higher education is the need of hour. This college is primarily a place to facilitate the access for the students residing in rural area could not travel much distance to the district place. Our college propagates value based education in rural area that is deprived of proper education to the student residing in remote areas of the district.

The name of our college embodies the inspiration of education for students who are ignorant of the gravity and utility of education as the life enlightenment agency; especially girl students are in grave need to understand this value of education. Moreover, along with syllabus-based education, we also impart egalitarian and humanity based social education.

The prime aim of the education is to produce compassionate symbiotic and mutual-relationships among citizen. This is the foundation of homogeneous healthy nation. College is striving and would strive to protect and preserve the interest of nation along with all students' interests in view of the evolving new challenges ahead.
